

My concern is with Hams interfering with ARMY MARS who have two (2) frequencies within the proposed range. Are those that are not MARS members be able to open up there radios in order to get on these frequencies ?